DECKHAND/DIVEMASTER

I have completed seasons in both the Mediterranean and United States. I have done an Atlantic crossing and logged over 10 000nm so have a strong sailing background. I recently completed an Arctic expedition travelling through Canada and Greenland. I have experience in managing and leading all dive operations. I also have charter experience. I am looking for a position onboard a charter/private yacht where I can use my experience and qualifications to contribute as a valuable member of the crew.

PROFILE

I have always had a great love for the sea and started sailing when I was 16. I am therefore determined to fulfill my dream of building a lifelong career doing what I am passionate about.

I am experienced having accumulated over 10 000 nautical miles. This has allowed me to gain confidence in all areas needed to be successful in the industry.

I am comfortable working long hours doing whatever it takes to get the task that I have been given done. I am reliable and responsible and can be left to work independently. I am respectful and easy going and get along with people of all ages and backgrounds.

I lead a healthy and active lifestyle and would ideally like to join a like-minded crew.
