MARY BIRCH

DECKHAND

I am a junior deckhand, with over five years experience in the professional finance industry in London, looking to bring my professional acumen, strong ability in building client relationships, and management and organisational skills to my yachting career. My hard work ethic is demonstrated in my extensive volunteering and extra work alongside my professional career, including over seven years experience volunteering in areas which I am very passionate about, ranging from manual labour roles for a UK homeless charity, to first aid and vaccinating roles with St John Ambulance, equipping me with personal and manual skills in a number of areas outside of my day job. To better equip me for my entry into becoming a junior deckhand, I have voluntarily taken on weekend daywork as part of a boat's winter re-fit in Southampton, UK. I am a keen solo traveller, a surfer of over seven years and spend a lot of time outside of work exercising, including weightlifting and running.

Yacht Experience

Volunteer Daywork | S/Y Prolific 26m

12 - 13 November 2022, Southampton, UK

I completed daywork in a volunteer capacity onboard S/Y Prolific, owned by the Ocean Youth Trust South, as part of their winter re-fit team. During this time I was part of the team removing the sails of the boat for winter, helping to flake and pack all sails, ensuring safe stowage of sails, removal of blocks, organisation of land-based storage locker, sanding of exterior ready for re-paint, and wash down of deck.
