Profile

I started as a junior stewardess in the yachting industry in April 2019 having worked in Turkey and Greece and ended the 2022 Mediterranean season as Chief Stewardess. I am very capable and experienced working in a fast-paced environment in which I thrive. I am a hardworking person with plenty of energy and the drive to do my duties in a professional manner. I enjoy being part of a team and can get on extremely well with all age groups and cultures. I have had three previous seasons as a junior / second stewardess onboard a 34-metre yacht. My fourth season in 2022 I was promoted to Chief Stewardess on the same boat and my season ended in September 2022. I am at present in Fort Lauderdale and available to start immediately.

Key skills: Communication, ability to work under pressure, decision making, time management, self-motivation, conflict resolution, adaptability, able to carry out safety checks and creating a safe working environment. Guest relations and administration.
