PERSONAL PROFILE

Architect by profession, I am looking for my first opportunity to work as a junior stewardess of luxury yachts which I am very excited about. I am a very self-confident person, trustworthy, friendly, respectful, empathetic and very passionate about everything I do, I love sports and passionate about challenges, and for constant learning and living new experiences that contribute to my personal and professional development. I value activities that involve meeting people and creating good working relationships. I believe that teamwork is key to achieving objectives and achieving the best results, I have a lot of experience in this since, due to my profession, it was a key point for success as well as organization, luxury, creating the best environments according to its function, give the best service and, of course, the details have my main focus of attention and to contribute.

I am looking for a job that allows me to continue growing, constantly learning, that allows me to know the world and brings me financial security.

My biggest goal would be to be able to merge my profession with this industry and continue providing the best services.
