INTRODUCTION:

I have always loved the sea and while bringing up my family managed to maintain my contact with it, through part time opportunities. I am always eager to learn more and love a challenge, however great or small. I am a very bright and friendly person and really look forward to launching a fresh career, back in the marine industry.

EXPERIENCE

FEBRUARY 2004 TO DATE

MOTHER AND VARIOUS PART TIME JOBS

I am mother of 3 children, 2 now live in the UK & the 3rd is in Northern Thailand.

Additionally, I have done the following: Part time chef/crew on SY Lady Anita (30m), part time for North Sails & Solidaire on many occasions, volunteer work at The Good Shepherd, opened a small pizza shop, part time cook/stew on SY Yankee Too (37m), SY Senang, 2nd chef at Jeventine Restaurant in Laguna, part time Stew on Blossum Uno. I also have helped as translator and administrator for North Sails (immigration, dealing with construction, catering etc)

OCTOBER 2000 – FEBRUARY 2004

CREW CHEF/2ND STEW, SV AILE BLANCHE, 30M C&N CLASSIC

Cooking for crew & assistant chef when owner was onboard. Other duties included cleaning interior & exterior, polishing, stainless, varnishing, painting. It was very much a team work yacht and I worked hard in all aspects of maintaining the yacht.

JUNE 1997 – OCTOBER 2000

RESTAURANT MANAGER, THAI RESTAURANT, PALAU ISLAND

The owner of the Hong Kong restaurant asked me to set up the first Thai restaurant on Palau. I managed the accounts, hired staff & covered all general management/set up duties. I learned to read and write English.

APRIL 1994 – JUNE 1997

ASSISTANT CHEF, THAI RESTAURANT, HONG KONG

Trained up as assistant chef, at the same restaurant I was waitress; preparing lunch and dinner for clients. It was a very busy & high end restaurant. I also learnt to speak Cantonese during this time

APRIL 1993 – APRIL 1994

WAITRESS, THAI RESTAURANT, HONG KONG

Serving guests & interacting with them, laying tables, helping in the kitchen as needed, preparing restaurant before and after opening. General cleaning duties

APRIL 2019 – PRESENT
