

Elizabeth Van Wyk

Junior Stewardess

I am an open and genuine person with a commitment to participation and collaboration. I have a strong natural affinity towards service and have an ambition to feel a daily passion for the work I do and the people I am surrounded by. The idea of being afforded the opportunity to become part of close-knit team of individuals geared towards creating a bespoke quality service-based experience for Guests fulfills my desire for both personal and professional development. I look forward to working hard to position myself in an industry that challenges and broadens my horizons.
