OBJECTIVE

My training and education was followed by 16 years of service on a variety of commercial and pleasure vessels, beginning as an able seaman and working my way through the ranks of Chief Officer, and then as a Captain. I am a detail oriented and dedicated individual, which reflects in a passion for my career.

I am very sociable, cheerful and loyal. Always striving to improve my skills and develop myself as professional, very quick and diligent learner, ready to be in-charge on the all aspects on the vessel. I am open to either private or charter yacht with long term working conditions.
